According to the Texas Election Code and pursuant to the Help America Vote Act, military and civilian overseas voters who request a ballot-by-mail will automatically qualify to receive a ballot at the overseas address listed on their Federal Post Card Application (FPCA) for a period of up to four years (or 2 federal general elections). This form is intended for only those voters who previously submitted a FPCA and have now returned to their Harris County address and no longer wish to be listed as requesting a ballot-by-mail.

(Please print)
Step 1: Voter Information
